

Hot Beauty Trend: The Oxygen Facial

*It's the latest treatment for celebs.
Now, you too can get an oxygen facial here, at SK-II Boutique Spa by Senze Salus.*

The list of celebrities who are fans of oxygen facials is almost endless. Gwyneth Paltrow and J-Lo have raved about them in interviews. Eva Longoria says they're "a must before every major event". And Madonna, Kim Kardashian and Victoria Beckham are said to like them so much that they have their own machines.

Of course, most of us don't have thousands to spend on beauty devices. Thankfully, SK-II Boutique Spa by Senze Salus has invested in one, so we don't have to splash out – instead, we can get a 100-minute session for just $400.

So what's the draw of the oxygen facial? According to experts at SK-II Boutique Spa, every skin type can benefit. The treatment is said to be good for strengthening and toning skin, reducing impurities, targeting active acne, and regenerating damaged cells. It also supposedly has anti-ageing benefits – targeting fine lines, dullness and discolouration.

The Senze Oxygenated Facial begins with cleansing and sonic cleansing of the skin, followed by steaming, extractions and a facial massage. After this, a serum that targets your main skin concern (be it lines, dark spots or pimples) is applied for about 25 minutes as 95-98 per cent pure oxygen is pumped across skin, creating a cool, comfortable sensation. This is said to help the serum ingredients penetrate skin and target damaged cells. The SK-II Facial Treatment Mask is applied next, as you inhale oxygen from a headset. This is believed to be relaxing, and to have positive impacts on the body and mind.

The session finishes with a fine spray of SK-II Facial Treatment Essence and oxygen to soothe, refresh and brighten the complexion.

The Senze Oxygenated Facial is available at both branches of SK-II Boutique Spa by Senze Salus: #02-06 Shaw Centre (tel: 6836-9168) and 02-54/55 Millenia Walk (tel: 6336-4880). Find out more about special promotions for new customers at www.mysk2spa.com.
